

The Westin Denarau Resort & Spa

Where The Westin Denarau Resort & Spa is located on Fiji's largest island, Denarau, and is just 20 minutes from Nadi International Airport and three minutes from Port Denarau Marina.

Why you'll love it This is truly an arrival you'll remember: Picture being greeted with the sound of the Lali beats as you make your way along a driveway edged with Fijian Tiki torches leading to the gigantic traditional Fijian bure entrance lit up by four large flaming stone cauldrons.

Spread over 30 acres of beachfront land, the lush tropical surroundings are dotted with tealights to create a soothing atmosphere and a sense of revitalisation. Guests have access to all facilities at the adjacent Sheraton Fiji Resort and Sheraton Denarau Villas including five restaurants, three bars and lounges, and three swimming pools. In addition, the world-renowned Denarau Golf & Racquet Club is a short stroll away. Be sure to indulge in a well-earned treatment at the Heavenly Spa.

The deal Rooms start at $400 per night. See westinfiji.com

Treasure Island Resort

Where Daily flights from anywhere on Australia's east coast will get you to Nadi International Airport in four hours. Then choose to travel by boat, seaplane or helicopter to Treasure Island.

Why you'll love it Eco-friendly couples in search of their own slice of island paradise need look no further. A haven for many endangered species, the crystal clear waters, white sand beaches and blossoming tropical gardens of the Treasure Island Resort are a heavenly honeymoon hideaway.

Oceanview bures, each with private balcony, are positioned no further than 40 metres from the beach, while the honeymoon suite (Bure Domoni) features a private outdoor Jacuzzi. Guests have access to dive courses, fishing trips, and island hopping excursions as well as the Senikai Spa and Gym to take care of all pampering needs.

Mouth-watering beachside barbecues, attractive buffets and romantic candlelit meals all offer a magnificent range of taste sensations. Guests are even treated to a traditional lovo (underground stone oven) feast to be remembered.
