The Westin Melbourne opens the gates to heaven

16 June 2009: The Westin's commitment to wellness and a good night's sleep is as strong today as it was 10 years ago when Westin launched the Heavenly® Bed. As part of its Heavenly celebrations, The Westin Melbourne is giving all diners who make an online reservation at Allegro Restaurant the opportunity to win a complete Heavenly® Bed package.

The plush package, valued at over $4000AUD includes Westin's signature Heavenly® Bed featuring the exclusive pillow top mattress and base, two luxurious feather pillows, a comforting queen size doona and crisp white Heavenly linen including two pillow cases, queen size sheet set and doona cover.

In the past decade, more than 75 million guests have tucked themselves into a Heavenly® Bed at Westin hotels around the world including U.S. Presidents, Hollywood royalty and professional athletes with more than 30,000 beds and 100,000 pillows being sold to date. The sumptuous, 10-layer Heavenly Bed has grown from cult favorite to well-loved classic, so don't miss out on your chance to take a piece of heaven home.

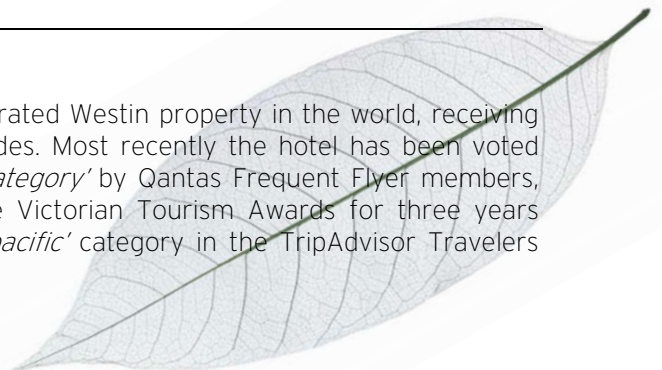

In order to be in the running to win this luxurious prize, simply make a lunch or dinner reservation at Allegro Restaurant via the website on www.westin.com.au/melbourne/heavenly-dining.html. The Westin Melbourne's award winning restaurant offers informal yet stylish dining. Featuring open kitchens, a highlight of Allegro is dining alfresco on the terrace amongst the tree tops of cosmopolitan Collins Street. The hotel's Executive Chef regularly changes menus to showcase the best of fresh, local produce all matched with an extensive wine list. Allegro's signature "Platter Dining" has ensured the restaurant is popular for corporate lunches and pre-theatre dining.
