

THE WESTIN

SYDNEY

The Westin Sydney named in the top 10 hotels in Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific as voted by US Travel + Leisure Magazine Readers.

July 11, 2007

The Westin Sydney was announced today as one of the top 10 hotels in Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific in the 12th Annual World's Best Awards Reader's Survey.

The luxurious, contemporary and sophisticated Westin Sydney is dedicated to providing travelers with the highest level of service and product innovation, offering 416 rooms and suites, distinguished amenities with unique and varied dining experiences. The hotel caters to the needs of the world's major corporations and leisure travelers, ensuring all guests depart feeling better than when they arrived. This accolade from Travel + Leisure now confirms The Westin's status as one of the premier hotels within the Australian, New Zealand and South Pacific market.

General Manager of The Westin Sydney, Mr. Mark Burns, is thrilled by the positive response that the hotel has received. "Our team has made every effort to provide an unparalleled level of personalised service to our valued guests, and it is wonderful that The Westin has once again been recognised" said Mr. Burns.

Indeed the hotel is no stranger to awards, recently announced as Deluxe Hotel of the Year 2007, AHA (NSW Accommodation Division), 10th Annual Awards for Excellence, in addition to Conde Nast Traveler and Luxury Travel Gold List 2007.
